

RUSSIAN SOVIETS SEEK RECOGNITION FROM AMERICA

Prepared to Spend 2 Million for Purchase of Supplies

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 20.—As the first step toward obtaining recognition by the United States, the Russian soviet government is prepared to deposit $200,000,000 in gold with American and European banks for the purchase of supplies needed in the reconstruction work according to a formal statement issued tonight by L. C. A. Martens, American representative of the Demidoff iron and steel works in Moscow, through the bureau of representatives of the Russian socialist soviet republic.

Asserting that he had received this week his appointment as official representative of the soviet government in the United States, Martens said he had forwarded his credentials to the state department and had opened temporary headquarters in this city. With the credentials, he said, he had sent a report on conditions in Russia and an expression of the government's desire "to re-establish normal relations between the two countries."

Mr. Martens said that in addition to the $200,000,000 to be deposited to defray the cost of initial purchases, the soviet government was prepared to submit various propositions which he said he hoped would prove acceptable to American manufacturers and exporters by the establishment of material credit for additional government purchases.

Plans Outlined.
Outlining his plans, Martens said he intended soon to establish permanent headquarters with the appointment of a "commercial attaché" and organization of a board of trade of soviet, Russia. According to Martens, who asserted that despite "silly" reports concerning the soviet government it had laid firm the foundations for a well-ordered development of their society, he was "empowered to state" that his government is sincerely anxious to have hostilities cease in Russia and enter into agreements with the American government for the peaceful withdrawal of American troops from Russia.

RAPID CONCLUSION OF PEACE LIKELY

PARIS, March 20.—(By The Associated Press.)—While no authoritative announcement has been made concerning the conference between President Wilson, M. Clemenceau and David Lloyd George, there is reason to believe that reparations and frontier issues are the foremost obstacles they are seeking to remove from the path to a rapid conclusion of the peace treaty.

How far President Wilson is adhering to the ideas of the American members of the commission is not known but it is thought probable they are serving as a guide for him.

Drew Bonar Law, the government spokesman in a statement in the house of commons this evening said that the government had accepted the report of the special commission of which Justice Sir John Sankey is chairman, including its undertaking to report on the question of nationalization by May 20 and to issue interim reports from time to time on the problem of improvements in the coal industry.

Ministers Favor Moving Wesleyan To Springfield

(By The Associated Press.)
DECATUR, March 20.—By a vote of 114 to 34 the Illinois conference of the Methodist church in its special session here today decided to accept the Springfield offer for Illinois Wesleyan University, now located in Bloomington.

After the vote was announced a motion was made by one of the Bloomington advocates that in the written statement sent to the board of trustees of Wesleyan University the decision of the conference be expressed as unanimous. The motion carried.

The decision here is not final. The university board in its meeting April 22 will decide if the site of the university is to be changed but it is thought that the board will abide by the decision of the conference.

The Springfield bid provides for a site of 80 acres of land for the university, $500,000 for permanent buildings, $50,000 for the sustentation fund and an option on 56 acres of land adjoining the proposed site estimated to be worth $150,000.

BUNDY TRIAL OPENS IN EAST ST. LOUIS

(By The Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 20.—Testimony that arms and ammunition were imported to East St. Louis three weeks prior to the race riots and stored in a saloon operated by a negro, was introduced today at the trial at Waterloo, Ill., of Leroy N. Bundy, negro dentist, charged with murder in connection with the killing of two policemen July 1, 1917, which it is said precipitated the race riots the following day in which more than 30 negroes were killed.

Witnesses declared crowds of negroes were seen gathering in various parts of the city in the early part of the night and assembled in the ghetto following the tolling of a church bell. It was testified one gathering assembled at Bundy's garage.

More than 2,000 shots were fired following the murder of the policemen according to witnesses and the shooting did not stop until four o'clock in the morning. Negro women with shotguns were as conspicuous as men, one witness testified.

Special Prosecutor James A. Farmer, said in his opening statement, he would show ammunition was stored in Bundy's home and that Bundy was instrumental in inciting the riots. The defense will show Bundy attempted to keep order among the negroes, attorneys for Bundy said.

ELECTROTYPERS IN CHICAGO STRIKE

CHICAGO, March 20.—A strike of 500 members of the Chicago Electrotypers Union No. 3, twenty electrotyping foundries, effective tomorrow, was ordered tonight after an overwhelming vote of the union men to take that action. James J. Freil, president of the International Stereotypers and Electrotypers Union charged that the Chicago employing electrotypers had broken their agreement with the union by refusing to arbitrate the wage question.

About twenty electrotyping concerns not members of employing association will not be affected.

Mr. Freil, who in 1912 during the Chicago strike of newspaper pressmen caused the expulsion of a local union of stereotypers for joining the striking pressmen declared the international union was proud of its insistence on arbitration.

MAKE VICTORY LOAN A SUCCESS, IS GLASS' APPEAL

Says Loan Can Be Declared On Commercial Basis

(By The Associated Press.)
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 20.—Appealing confidently to the patriotism of the American people to make a success of the coming victory liberty loan Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass in two speeches in the twin cities today declared the loan could not be floated on the strictly commercial basis. The people have ample resources he declared from the $11,000,000,000 trade balance of the last three years, high wages and savings campaigns.

"I decline to believe," said Secretary Glass, "that the American people are indifferent to the honorable commitments of their government or would diminish the splendor of the nation's achievement in war by an exhibition of avarice in time of peace."

Four liberty loans have gone over the top and nothing has come out of the purpose of the loan to put the capstone to the splendid structure of national credit by making the victory loan an abundant success.

"I should doubt our ability to cope with the problems of peace if so quickly we forget the obligations of war. Some men tell about the 'sacrifices' the American people have made. Where are the devastated fields and ruined cities? Where our cathedrals destroyed and homes profaned? Where our flooded mines and pillaged factories? Is it then a sacrifice to invest one's money in the interest-bearing obligations of one's government to make everlastingly secure the nation's freedom as well as the nation's prosperity?"

"When men undertake to compute the sacrifice of a war for freedom in terms of commerce I would like them to get a vision of something I saw not long ago on the battlefield of France and Belgium."

Right to Invoke Patriotism.
"We have a right to invoke the patriotism of the people and today it takes a higher type of patriotism to serve the nation than was required in the delirium of war. Upon this I shall confidently rely and I here predict that the response will in no measure disappoint the expectation of the men who set a high estimate on the spirit of the American nation. The American people should supplement the patriotism of war by the patriotism of peace and just as American soldiers on the fields of battle made notable conquests for liberty so American business men in a different way and through different instrumentalities should now give expression to their patriotism by promptly and cheerfully meeting the obligations of citizenship which involve triumphs of peace easily comparable to the great ultimate consequences of the great victories of war."

The foremost obligation of every American citizen is the duty of every American citizen of humble station or high to guard jealously the honor of the nation to regard its commitments as his own and willingly to pledge his labor and his substance to a complete payment of the debt."

18-YEAR OLD GIRL HELD FOR MURDER
SEATTLE, Wash., March 20.—Miss Ruth Garrison, 18 years old, who according to the police she caused the death of Mrs. Dudley M. Storrs, Tuesday, by poisoning the food Mrs. Storrs ate at her luncheon guest, was charged with murder in the first degree today by John D. Carmody, assistant prosecuting attorney. Miss Garrison in her confession said she was a rival for the affections of Storrs.

Wounded Yanks 'Few Agitators' Take Advantage Vocational Work

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 20.—Approximately 50,000 American soldiers disabled in the world war have taken advantage of the government program for vocational training according to an estimate made by Major A. G. Crane, attached to the division of physical reconstruction in the surgeon general's office at the continuation of today of the international conference on rehabilitation held under the auspices of the Red Cross. He said 33,681 patients are receiving treatment in occupational therapy in forty-eight hospitals staffed by nearly 3,000 vocational aids. Occupations taught, he added, numbered 250. Of 200,000 wounded and diseased soldiers, he said, approximately 12,400 are now in this country.

Major Crane said 2,948 rehabilitated men had been placed in industry. Analysis of the first 1,215 cases he explained showed that 372 men had been trained in industry and trade, 274 in commercial work, 251 in professional studies, 251 in agriculture, 45 in Americanization activities and the other 22 in unclassified occupations. Captain W. W. Smith also attached to the surgeon general's office, another speaker, said 15 hospital papers each with a circulation of 10,000 to 50,000 being published. The wounded are trained in all branches of newspaper work and printing, he said, and the newspapers did much to keep the men contented in the hospitals.

Says Democrats Fail To Support Their Principles

(By The Associated Press.)
NEWARK, N. J., March 20.—Asserting that the Democratic party has ceased to support Democratic principles, former U. S. Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, declared in an address here tonight that he would never again vote for the candidate of any party which candidly reduces our liberty and unnecessarily increases our taxes.

Mr. Bailey who was the principal speaker at the "Victory Banquet" of the Road Horse association blamed the Democratic party for the passage of the prohibition amendment to the constitution and for the near passage of the amendment granting suffrage of women.

"I have been a Democrat all my life," he said. "A 'color' Democrat if you please, and have never scratched a party ticket. Those who now control the Democratic party have renounced one Democratic principle after another in such rapidity in bewildering succession that they have left us nothing except the name."

"Since Thomas Jefferson founded the Democratic party has always insisted that every state should exclusively control the local affairs of its own people but a Democratic congress imposed the time honored prohibition on the altar of national prohibition and a majority voted to repeat the sacrifice in behalf of woman suffrage. The doctrine of reverence for the constitution," he declared, had been altered until the constitution was regarded as an "obsolete scrap of paper."

"The liberty we have thought worth fighting for and dying for," he declared, "is the liberty of the individual—the right of every man to do for himself and with his own whatever he pleases so long as he does not interfere with the right of other men to do the same."

"But in this day they tell us that it is better to be good than it is to be free and they have multiplied our penal statutes until the lawless of them carry even an index of them in their minds. We have restricted the rights of men until no civilized country on the globe interferes with the habits, the pleasures and the business of its people as much as this free government of the United States."

'Few Agitators' Are Assailed By Burleson

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 20.—Postmaster General Burleson in a letter made public today to Secretary of Labor Wilson regarding the labor situation in connection with the government's control of telegraph and telephone wires, charges that a "few agitators" are continuously conducting propaganda which engenders unnecessary dissatisfaction among employees. The postoffice department's policies are misrepresented, Mr. Burleson declared so that the impression is created that the government discriminates against employees who are members of labor unions.

The postmaster general asserts that the treatment in the matter of wages, conditions and consideration of grievances is given both to union and non-union employees and denies there has been permitted any discrimination against employees because of labor union affiliations.

The letter deals with a memorandum prepared by Felix Frankfurter, chairman of the war labor policies board, and relative to telegraph and telephone workers. Mr. Burleson declared that the postmaster general to consider Professor Frankfurter in studying this situation did not consult the postoffice department's wire control board of which Mr. Burleson is chairman and that Professor Frankfurter consequently failed to learn facts. Mr. Burleson alludes to orders which have been issued from time to time to the various wire companies under federal control and points out that these orders prove that the employees have the privilege of joining labor unions if they wish to, do so, and also that employees have been permitted individual or collective bargaining regardless of membership in unions. He denies the truth of the "widely heralded statements made by the few agitators that employees dismissed because of union affiliations (while wire companies were under private control) have been refused employment," because of those affiliations. His letter contains re-employment statistics intended to show that no such discrimination was maintained.

Mr. Burleson refers to strikes and declares that the government policies were such that union and nonunion employees were treated with the same fairness. The government's wire administration, Mr. Burleson says, is endeavoring as rapidly as possible to remedy bad working conditions and to right inadequate wage rates.

CHARLES MAY RESIDE IN SWITZERLAND

GENEVA, March 20.—French Wireless Service.—The Swiss federal council it is reported, has given favorable approval to the request from former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary that he be permitted to reside in Switzerland. The request now is being considered by the political foreign affairs department of the government.

Information received in Paris March 11, said the Austrian government was considering enactment of a law banishing Charles. A despatch from Geneva March 12, reported the former emperor as seriously ill from a nervous breakdown. His wife, Zita, also was said to be in poor health.

PILOTS BREAK WITH MARINE WORKERS

NEW YORK, March 20.—A statement declaring that members of the master's mates and Pilots Union here had decided to sever their connection with the marine workers' affiliation which is conducting the strike or harbor workers against private boat owners and to return to work tomorrow under a private agreement was given out tonight by Paul Bonyne, counsel for the boat owners' association. Mr. Bonyne said he was informed that most of the lighter captains on state had returned to work today. Thomas L. Whetten, president of the marine workers' affiliation characterized the report as "propaganda" and declared there had been no split in the strikers' ranks.

MORMONS RELEASED

Juarez, Mar. 20.—"We are all right, are well and have not been physically mistreated," was the message received today from Bishop J. C. Bentley, president of the Juarez state of the Mormon church. James E. Whetten and Alchier Tetjen, all of whom were captured by Francisco Villa's band last week. They have been released and are on their way back to Colonia Juarez.

NEW SCHEDULE OF STEEL PRICES AGREED UPON

Provide for Reduction in Product for Coming Year

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 20.—Agreement upon a new schedule of steel prices providing a reduction in the present quotations for the commodity was reached late tonight by representatives of the steel industry and the industrial board of the department of commerce. The prices are for 1919 and are effective at once.

A partial list of the new prices was made public tonight as follows:
Basic pig iron reduced to $25.75 a gross ton; four inch billets $38.50 a gross ton; two inch billets $42 a gross ton; merchant bars $23.50 a hundred pounds; plates $24.50 a hundred pounds and structural steel $24.50 a hundred pounds. The price of iron ore, Lake Erie ports remains at the present rate except in case freight rates are changed. In such an event the price will be reduced or increased accordingly.

Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the U. S. Steel Corporation in announcing the new schedule said:
"We cannot give you a full statement regarding these prices until tomorrow. It is expected that prices during 1919 will not be any lower and our present intention is to make no decreases in wages except perhaps, at some mills where there is contract between employers and employees providing for a sliding scale."

"The price of iron ore, b. o. b. Lake Erie ports remains unchanged except where a reduction in freight rates would become effective in which case the price of pig iron will be changed accordingly."

A determined effort is being made by the ore producers from the great lakes region to obtain a reduction in the present freight rates, it was stated by John A. Savage, president of Savage & Co. ore producers in Duluth. Such action by the ore producers is understood to have the approval of both the steel men and the board.

MEAT DEMANDS REACH ENORMOUS FIGURES

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Under the stimulus of war time demands, meat production reached the enormous total of 23,366,000 pounds last year which the department of agriculture announced today undoubtedly never before had been attained in this country and certainly not in any other country by long odds.

"Meat producers met the war situation magnificently," the announcement said. "The increased production was four per cent. Notwithstanding the very high prices of meat in 1918 a large fraction of the population must have greatly increased its meat consumption."

Meat production showed an increase of almost 5,000,000,000 pounds last year compared with 1900. Beef production increased almost a billion pounds, totalling 9,797,000,000 pounds; pork production reached 13,011,000,000 pounds and over 1917 and of 40 per cent over 1909. Per capita of production was 93.2 pounds last year compared with 117.9 pounds in 1900; of pork 123.8 pounds compared with 122.2 in 1900.

Sen. Reed Replies To Democrats of Missouri House

(By The Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, March 20.—U. S. Senator James A. Reed today commenting on the action of forty democratic members of the Missouri house of representatives who yesterday adopted a resolution calling on him to resign and run for re-election as a means of determining public sentiment on his views said he had no objection to the men passing the resolution but he did object to their saying he spoke disrespectfully of President Wilson.

"I am not conducting this campaign as some are, by abusing anyone who does not agree with me," he said, "but I make no denial of the fact that I do not agree with President Wilson."

"I will not resign, of course—not unless all these other fellows do with views for and against the League of Nations. In that case I will go with them and we can have a general election with the document as the paramount issue."

"I believe it is coming to a general referendum for the United States senate will not ratify the document."

Mr. Reed today formally declined to meet in debate Charles M. Hay, a St. Louis lawyer and advocate of the League of Nations. He said, however, he would meet former President Taft, Alton B. Parker or Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, in debate.

Reiterates Attack.
St. Louis, Mo., March 20.—Reiterating his attack on the proposed league of nations, United States Senator James A. Reed in an address tonight declared that before America accepts the proposed constitution of the league she should "stop, look and listen."

Reed was the guest of personal friends at a dinner and before beginning his address distributed copies of the league's proposed constitution.

"I am not ready to turn over matters of vital importance to America decision by five foreign gentlemen," declared Reed. "Suppose we had trouble with Mexico. Why should we be compelled to refer this to a Europe conference for settlement?"

"The general understanding of the Monroe Doctrine is that we warned Europe not to get mixed up in American affairs. If we would not take part in European affairs."

ENGLISH REGARD LEAGUE AS THE CROWN OF VICTORY

Controversy in U. S. Commented on by English Press

LONDON, March 20.—British Wireless Service.—The league of nations controversy in the United States as bearing upon the English attitude is the subject of the following comment in the London Times:
"The English, without distinction of party, regard a better understanding with Americans as the crown of victory. It is unfortunate for the idea that so many of us on both sides of the Atlantic have at heart, that party feeling should be running so high just now in America and that we, who are working with President Wilson in Paris, should furnish the sticks with which the Republicans are belaboring the Democrats. We have no wish to take sides in these party controversies and have been at some pains to avoid even the suspicion of doing so. Our sole wish is to work with the American people in what we believe to be as much their ideals and interests as our own."

"Wishing that, with whom should we work but the President of the United States? That he is also leader of the Democratic party is a mere accident to the mind and if the president had been a Republican we should have been at exactly the same pains to understand his point of view with him."

Times Comments.
The Times points out that there were at the opening of the conference two general views about the kind of peace that the world ought to have—the French view and the American view and adds:
"No views of settlement were so clearly identified with this country as these two views with France and America. The chief instrument of the American view was the league of nations. This ideal is in one form or another almost as old as international law and nearly every country in the world has at one time or another contributed to it but its application to the problem of this war came from America in the first instance."

"There is therefore no question at the conference of our imposing a policy of our own. What we have done was to seek to reconcile so far as possible the French and American views."

"Our policy at Paris has been that of mediator and interpreter."

From the Post.
The Liverpool Post says:
"Lord Robert Cecil places the Monroe Doctrine in its true light with regard to the league of nations. He says in effect that so far from the league being the death blow to the capital article of American political faith it is the application of that article on a universal scale. The draft of the covenant, to the parties to the league undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of every member of the league."

"The most absolute supporter of Monroeism could surely desire no more than that. The independence of both Americans is guaranteed by an overwhelming majority of the powers, great and small. The league of nations will give America her rightful place in the van of forces of civilization that hereafter are to shape the larger purposes of our race."

OFFER MADE UNION
London, March 20.—The Lancashire cotton employees have decided to grant the workers a forty-nine and one-half hour week, compared with the present fifty-five and one-half hour week, but declare that they cannot concede the demand for increased pay to enable them to earn the same amount in 44 hours as in 55 and one-half. The employees' union will consider the offer of the employers.

DIES FROM WOUNDS
La Crosse, Wis., March 20.—Fred Zanker, 24, employee of the Milwaukee railroad, shot Tuesday night by Louis Rueli, railroad detective, it is alleged, for trespassing upon the tracks died in a local hospital this morning. John B. Schomers the other victim died shortly after he was received at a hospital. Rueli remains silent in his cell at the city jail.

DELUSIONS.

It is said that one or more of the defeated candidates for alderman will file a petition objecting to the certification of aldermanic candidates who received a majority vote in the recent primary. In most instances the margins between the successful and unsuccessful candidates in the primary were quite decisive and one wonders by what course of reasoning a candidate defeated in the primary imagines that by a technical procedure he can secure the nomination and then have the approval of enough voters in the regular election to land him in the city council membership.

MORGAN COUNTY MUST HURRY.

The board of supervisors of Sangamon county recently voted $500,000 worth of bonds for hard roads in accordance with the result of the election some months ago. In the past some Sangamon county roads have been no better than the roads of this county. In fact, as a general proposition they have not been as good. But with the money which the county is to receive from state aid from the $50,000,000 state bond issue and the local bond issue of $500,000, Sangamon is very sure to outstrip this county in good roads—program unless residents here bestir themselves promptly. This good roads question is somewhat hackneyed but it is a question which presents the best opportunity for county development. And what the residents of Jacksonville need to realize is that county development means also the growth and betterment of Jacksonville. There is a growing feeling among citizens here that provisions for an adequate water supply and the coming of hard roads will mean a very considerable business enlargement for this community and of a permanent and satisfactory kind.

REAL PHILANTHROPY.

More people need to catch something of the spirit of a laborer employed by the International Harvester Co. He was so impressed with the appeal for aiding Armenia that he sent his bank book to the committee, together with an order on the bank to pay over his entire savings amounting to $850 to the fund. This man was not widely educated, knows very little about general conditions in European countries, but does know that in this land of plenty, people should be very willing to contribute to the suffering in countries where the ravages of war have been felt for four years.

This man has a heart that cannot stand to hear about the suffering of women and children without doing his very best to relieve that suffering. If people of larger means would get this same spirit a fund so large would be contributed for world wide charity and philanthropic work that there would never be a need for special campaigns. The interest on such a fund would come near taking care of world relief work.

EVER PRESENT DUTY CALL.

From the Cleveland Plain Dealer. —There is no shibboleth that has the trumpet-call quality of the word duty. In it is bound up loyalty, service, action, honor. In duty's name no task is too hard, no labor too disagreeable. No doubt we have a new conception of the word. It is another revelation due to the great war.

A great many American women have been washing dishes because duty urged them to it. Washing dishes is one of the most unpleasant of tasks. These American women, or a large proportion of them, have never washed dishes at home. But in the cantinas, in the hospitals, here and over there, they have washed them in the spirit of service and to the glory of loyal womanhood.

There is no royal road to dishwashing. Devices have been suggested for improving the process. Attaching a hose to the hot-water faucet is recommended. There are scourers and swabbers of many types. But real dish washers assert that there has been no improvement on the cleaning combination used by generations of mothers and grandmothers—two bare hands, a cake of brown soap, a suitable square of cloth and plenty of hot water. That's the fashion in which American women have been washing dishes over in France, according to a correspondent's recent letter. But alas for theory and tradition. The correspondent further tells us that a recent humorous dishwashing contest between men and women the men won out by two plates and three cups.

OWN YOUR HOME CAMPAIGN.

Jacksonville seems to have enrolled in the national "Own your home" campaign. This campaign was inaugurated by the department of labor with the end in view of stimulating building operations during the readjustment period. In some cities church, labor and women's organizations are co-operating to encourage the building of homes and are helping the prospective home owners in financial arrangements. In this city the campaign has taken a different turn and instead of building people are buying homes already built. The result has given an upward tendency to realty values, and while it isn't furnishing labor as the campaign designers intended, there are resulting benefits.

Germany is said to be so short on cotton that one-fourth of the world's supply is needed. Since there is a known surplus in the south and prices are not at present satisfactory, it is very safe to say that those in power in Washington will find a way to let the south come to the aid of Germany with cotton at prices satisfactory to the planters.

An amendment to the Tice bill is suggested in the Illinois legislature whereby county superintendents of highways would be subject to orders of the state highways department instead of to county authorities. There is some merit in this plan of centralized power for it purposes to carry out more uniform improvement plans. But in considering it, it is well to remember that cities which have been shorn of their powers by state boards have in many instances found the plan unsatisfactory. The proposed amendment should include some provision for giving counties at least a partial voice in directing the work of their highway superintendents.

It is proposed to purchase an electric vote recording machine for the legislature, whereby a roll call result can be recorded in less than a minute's time. This will mean that the solons must be of certain mind when they vote for there will be slight opportunity of changing before the vote is announced, as has often been the custom under the slow roll call process.

FINISH THE JOB

Get this slogan in your mind—finish the job! This is the way the Liberty Bell, official publication of the Liberty Loan organization in this district put its.

That is good old United States language. It is slogan of the Victory Liberty Loan—and it fits. On the eve of the opening of the final drive for funds with which to pay for the trimmings after whipping the Huns, this phrase—finish the job—is illuminating and inspiring. It has the good old Yankee punch.

We are not quitters. We believe in playing the game to the end. The pluck and grit which prompted the "Lost Battalion" commander to send his famous "Go-to-Hell" message, is the same sort of pluck and grit we find in our streets anywhere. The occasion alone is required to bring it out. In the Fifth Loan our workers will go to it with the spirit that insofar as money can assure a lasting peace, we shall see it through if we have to fight for it.

We ourselves are not a "lost battalion," nor stray and wondering aimlessly. We are right here safe on the job. The only thing that's popping around us is home political shrapnel, whose echoes soon will be drowned in the recurrent wave of patriotism, which is bound to buoy us up when the Victory Loan drive gets in full swing. Most of the "Lost Battalion" are with us, thank God, but it is no time to quit. All our boys must be brought home.

Every worker for the Victory Liberty Loan knows full well that the government must have the money, and we owe it to the boys who fought for us, and we owe it to ourselves and humanity to clinch the victory.

Our country's reputation and credit are at stake. At humanity's court we shall not stop until the Golden Rule has become the rule governing the nation, and first we must live up to it ourselves. Finish the Job!

THE CALLING VOICE

"Somewhere a voice is calling," I hear the plaintive lay, when evening shades are falling, and dusk is dim and gray; it's sung by youth and maiden, who lightly bear their years, who are not heavy laden, and worn by toil and tears. I see my daughter dolling herself in costly trills; somewhere a voice is calling on me to pay the bills; somewhere a voice is saying, "Your standstill's gone to waste; come hither and be paying the money that we need." My folks are always falling for rugs and druggets nice; somewhere a voice is calling on me to raise the price. I sit and brood and ponder beneath my fig and vine, and long to be up yonder where all the planets shine. For life is sad and bitter, a long and weary road, and one who's not a quitter must always hear a load. There is no time for stalling, no pause for rest or fun; somewhere a voice is calling for men and still more men. The good sport bears his burden, and hopes that when he dies he will receive as gerdon a free pass to the skies. Where silver streams are brawling by Eden's verdant hills, he'll hear no voices calling on him to pay the bills.

WITH THE SICK

Friends of Mrs. W. M. Barbre will be glad to know that she is improving at Cherokee, Iowa, she went two weeks ago because of illness. The death of Mrs. Barbre's mother and sister, following one so closely upon the other and after weeks of illness, contributed to her nervous condition and on the advice of her physician she went to the Iowa city, accompanied by her husband.

County Clerk G. L. Riggs is still confined to his home from an attack of the flu. Mrs. Riggs and the three children are also ill and yesterday Mrs. Riggs' mother, who came to care for the members of the family, was also taken ill. However, none of the cases are of a very serious kind and some improvement was noted yesterday.

DEATHS

W. R. C. Members Had Birthday Social.

The members of the Woman's Relief corps held their March birthday social yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James C. Weber, 302 West Court street. It is seldom that there has been a larger attendance than was present on this occasion, as the day was beautiful from a weather standpoint. The rooms were prettily decorated with carnations of various colors and American flags and bunting. The program included the singing of America by the members, followed by a recitation, "The Good Samaritan" given in a pleasing way by Miss Dorothy Donovan. Another number was the recitations by Miss Emma Gibbs, "The Widow" and "The Spider." These were rendered in a manner greatly appreciated by the company.

The afternoon closed with the serving of delicious refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee. The hostesses were Mrs. Josephine Jaeger, Mrs. Anna Vieira, Mrs. Bell Seymour, Mrs. Mary Donovan and Mrs. James C. Weber. Among the out of town guests were Miss Margaret Jefferson, of Lynville, and Mrs. Lincoln Hall of Markham. A neat sum was netted for the treasury of the corps.

FUNERALS

Packard.

A good number of sympathetic friends and veteran comrades gathered at the residence of the late Charles Packard to pay the last tribute of respect to a deceased comrade.

The services were in charge of Rev. L. Pontius who read suitable portions of scripture from Timothy where the writer urges his young friend to fight the good fight of faith; from the 6th of Ephesians where the Christian panoply is described and the application made and then a portion from II Corinthians where other good advice is given. He said in brief:

The apostle compares life with a battle; a constant warfare to maintain standards of right in our conduct. This fact is shown in the life of every one who makes an effort to live and act aright.

That our brother experienced this same condition is certain. The presence of these veterans of the Grand Army shows that he was a soldier faithful on the field of battle and true in all things, a man whose character was pure gold. The attendance of these old soldiers in such good numbers is a proof of the esteem in which our departed brother was held.

One who knew him said he was always trustworthy, true and reliable as gold. What more could be asked regarding a man?

The apostle in the passage of scripture read speaks in military language for it was a military age when might ruled the world. He tells his followers to take the whole armor of God, loins girt about with truth; feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; the helmet of salvation; the sword of the spirit and above all, covering all, protecting all, the shield of faith. This gives a powerful insight into the character of Paul; by faith he saw the invisible and so could overcome material difficulties.

So in the midst of sorrow faith bids us lay aside the material sight and gaze into the world beyond where all is pure and lovely. These who sorrow so deeply today may with the eye of faith behold their loved one in realms of bliss with the throng about the great white throne. In times of stress and sorrow faith bids us cast aside earthly cares and burdens and view with serene satisfaction the great beyond where pain and sorrow are unknown.

So I pray that the afflicted ones here today; the members of the Grand Army, one and all may lay hold of the shield of faith and view with joy unspeakable and full of glory the things prepared for them whom the Master loves.

At the close of the services the remains were borne to Diamond Grove cemetery by Russell Reeder, Packard Reeder, Wesley Olroyd, Wesley James, T. J. Farra, James A. Scott, Al Thomason and C. H. Gibbs.

The flowers were cared for by Mrs. T. J. Packard, Miss Lizzie Sanderson.

The Whisper That Comes in the Night

The Clotius Knowledge Women Gain When a Wonderful Thought Steals Over Them.

Happiness in its most thrilling degree comes to woman with the thought of possessing a baby.

Every woman in the joy of coming motherhood should prepare her system for the unusual strain. Three generations have found the tried and reliable preparation Mother's Friend, of the greatest help at such a time. By its daily use throughout the period, the skin of the abdomen is made soft and elastic, expanding muscles relax easily when baby arrives, and pain at the time is in this way avoided.

The inflammation of breast glands is avoided.

Obtain from your druggist, by all means his great preparation which science has ordered for so many years to expectant mothers.

Write the Bradford Regulator Company, Dept. D, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia for their helpful and interesting Mother's Friend Book, and begin the use of Mother's Friend. It is for external use, is absolutely safe and wonderfully effective.

And remember, there is nothing to take the place of MOTHER'S FRIEND.

How to Insure Yourself Against Battery Troubles

The first thing to do when you buy an electrically equipped car is to consult the Prest-O-Lite Service Station, (218 South Main St.) Buy a hydrometer syringe and learn how to use it. Find out how to make other simple tests that are necessary to protect the health of your storage.

These periodical tests are highly important. They enable you to tell in advance when your battery is in danger of being ruined through undercharging or overheating—when minor troubles in the electrical system are draining the strength and endurance of your battery—when an inexpensive freshening charge would save expensive dismantling and rebuilding later.

Wise ones see to it that their car is equipped with a PREST-O-LITE Battery. This is your BIGGEST start in lessening battery troubles.

BRITISH MINERS RECEIVE INCREASE

LONDON, March 20.—The interim report to the coal commission of which Justice Sir John Sankey is chairman issued tonight recommends seven hours of work underground, instead of eight, from July 1, 1921, subject to the economic position of the industry. The report recommends an increase in wages of two shillings per shift for colliery workers now under sliding scales and an advance of one shilling for workers under sixteen years.

The present system of ownership and system of working in mines was condemned and a substitute must be found either in nationalization or unification by national purchase or joint control. An expert report by the mine owners on the commission recommends an increase of eighteen pence in wages and a reduction of working hours to seven.

A third report recommends acceptance in full of the miners demands, including nationalization.

VISION CONSERVATION THEME OF DR. ADAMS

Subject One of Vital Public Interest—Informing Facts are Given

In a semi-public address recently Dr. A. L. Adams discussed conservation of vision. The theme is one which has attracted great deal of attention, not only from the medical profession, but from people interested in the problems of general public welfare.

Dr. Adams discussed congenital blindness, diseases of the eye and diseases of the optic nerve. In his introductory remarks he declared blindness as "that condition which sight is so diminished at any occupation requiring the use of the eyes is impractical." He said that in the U. S. there is about one blind person to 1,233 of the general population. The proportion of blind in the U. S. is a little less than the average for the world. It is estimated that only twenty per cent of the blind of school age are in schools for the blind.

Some of the more general and informing statements made are given in the paragraphs below:

THE CONSERVATION OF VISION

This is the day of conservation. We have conservation of soil, conservation of coal, conservation of forests and various other varieties, but what could be of greater importance than conservation of vision? As President Taft said: "The loss of that sense which enables us to see, to read, to write, to walk, to rejoice in the rising sun and marvel at the beauty of the setting sun, to know day from night, to look into the universe of countless worlds is a deprivation the very thought of which melts our hearts and brings tears to our eyes for those thus afflicted."

The value of good vision is equal to that of good health. The capacity to earn and the capacity to learn is largely dependent on good vision. Comparatively few, however, have given any considerable attention to the preservation of their own vision. Vision is driven by pain or other symptoms of disease.

Most Widespread Disorder
The most widespread of all disorders of the eye is without doubt eye strain, and it causes in total more disastrous results than all forms of eye disease.

Eye strain is, roughly speaking, a strain of the eye muscles, either those on the inside or those on the outside of the eye-ball. The necessity for an abnormal amount of exertion requires the expenditure of an abnormal amount of nerve force. The result of this excessive expenditure of nerve force varies with the individual. In many it means as a result, headaches. In others nausea or vomiting, or indigestion or backache or nervous exhaustion, general fatigue, weakness or fickleness of will power, sleeplessness or over sleepiness.

Dr. Geo. M. Gould of Philadelphia, a brilliant physician and writer, has given us a most interesting study of the general effects of eye strain. He shows that the lives of Carlyle, Huxley, Wagner and many others were seriously disturbed and markedly influenced by the effect of eye strain.

Undoubtedly eye strain is the cause of many diseases of the eye itself, notably choroiditis, retinitis, styes and blepharitis.

Must Avoid Eye Strain
Only the more marked visual defects would trouble people who wear proper glasses if they would take precautions against the avoidable causes of eye strain.

In regard to the matter of light. In daylight—sit near the window having light fall on the print or work and not directly in the eye. Never work or read by failing daylight. The type should be clear and plain and well spaced, the paper unglazed. Those having the selection of books for our public schools should bear in mind these facts. School buildings should be for efficiency with an abundance of light, never less than one-fifth the area of floor space, rather than external adornment. Every school room should have sufficient artificial lighting facilities for dark days. Ask your teachers the effects of dark days upon the deportment of pupils.

The serious results of diseases of the eye have been brought more to my attention through a study of the causes of blindness at the Illinois School for the Blind. During the past years I have examined the eyes of the pupils and have tabulated records. In reference to the amount of vision I have divided them into four classes.

First Class—Those who can distinguish large type, as the head of a newspaper, or even somewhat smaller type, but from diseases of the eyes, should not read but for a very brief time—19 per cent.

Second Class—Those who are able to see large objects and not better than one-eighth vision—17 per cent.

Third Class—Those having bare perception of light—35 per cent.

Fourth Class—Those totally blind—29 per cent.

Injuries of the Eye

Injuries of the eye are responsible for from 10 to 15 per cent of blindness. During the past year at the School for the Blind seven were there due to direct injuries to the eyes. One had lime thrown in the eyes at four years of age; another went blind from the same cause at 16 years of age; another lost sight by being struck in the eye accidentally by beating the carpet; another became blind by being shot by a shotgun at 25 years of age; another lost sight of both eyes by exploding powder which was being carried in a bucket. One became blind as a result of an injury to the head by falling on a brick walk, resulting in vomiting, often and severely for a year with entire loss of vision, probably due to meningitis.

Even with the best of care and attention a certain number of eye accidents are unavoidable, however, many are avoidable and should be prevented.

The so-called harmless toys are responsible for the loss of many eyes. The air rifle has been especially guilty in this respect while it may not be dangerous to life it is especially dangerous to sight. The sale or gift of air guns should be prohibited by law. Such a law is in force in Chicago. Even the so-called popgun is responsible for serious accidents, as has occurred in this community several times. Scissors, especially sharp pointed ones are especially dangerous. The injury of eyes by hatpins or bystanders is not as frequent as formerly. Preventable eye injuries in the industries are not as numerous as formerly because of the safeguards that are now more frequently used about machines.

Many Eye Accidents
The last annual report of the National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness states that in Pennsylvania during the year 1916 there were 256,430 accidents reported. Of this number, 20,665 were eye accidents. The total number of eyes lost was 332, and the total amount of compensation paid or payable for the loss or injuries to the eyes was $269,589. It is difficult to say how many of these accidents might have been avoided. Some accidents occur no matter what efforts are made toward prevention. To prove the value of effort at prevention of accidents it may be mentioned that one large steel company has reduced the number of eye accidents in its plant 75 per cent in two years by the use of protective goggles.

Some accidents occur from the chipping of steel from tools. In a fair proportion of cases this is due to an inferior quality of steel and the use of cheap tools. The use of the pneumatic fan to draw dust and particles of stone and metal has resulted in less number of injuries to the eye. A spirit of co-operation between the employers of labor and employees.

the government agencies and the medical profession will greatly assist in the prevention of accidents to the eyes.

At a recent meeting of the Morgan County Medical Society a resolution was passed urging the State Board of Health to have passed a law making it mandatory that each child born in the State should have prophylactic eye drops put in the eyes of all new born children.

Laws Concerning the Blind
An earlier law was amended in 1915 making it obligatory for the doctors, mid-wife, parents, householders, or nurses report all cases of redness of the lids, or inflammation of the eyes in any new born baby occurring within two weeks from birth. This report must be made to the local health authorities and they in turn to the State Board of Health. It is also obligatory that Doctors or mid-wives or any one having charge of a confinement to have preventive drops put in the eyes immediately after birth, so that there may not develop any inflammation of the same.

This medicine silver nitrate 1% is furnished gratis by the State Board of Health.

Law for Relief of Blind.

In 1903 and amended in 1915 a law passed giving a $150 a year to all blind persons in this State who have been residents of the State for ten years, of the County for three years, and have an income of less than $250 per year.

What Every Community May Do
In the problem of conservation of vision one of the most effective methods consists in the careful inspection and treatment of the children.

Every community, no matter what the size, should include three essentials in its program:

1st—adequate provision for the preventing, reporting, and treating of Ophth. Neon.

2nd—Medical school inspection.

3rd—Nursing service for follow up work, and for the discovery and correction of any and all visual defects and eye diseases.

TREATMENT OF OAT SEED FOR SMUT

F. N. Briggs for Department of Agriculture Assisted County Agent Kendall in Demonstration at Morgan County Farms.

F. N. Briggs of the U. S. department of agriculture was here yesterday to assist County Agent G. B. Kendall in demonstration of the treating of oat seed to prevent smut. At the A. L. French farm near Chapin at 9 o'clock Thursday morning there was a group of farmers and 120 bushels of seed was prepared in an hour's time by the dry method. By this method one pint of formaldehyde is used with one pint of water and this solution is sufficient for 50 bushels of seed. The oats are treated with this liquid thru an atomizer spray. But the method commonly used a pint of formaldehyde was added to 40 gallons of water and the manner of treatment was more difficult and not so rapid. The dry method has the approval of the department of agriculture.

In the afternoon Mr. Briggs and Mr. Kendall went to Murrayville where another demonstration was given near the Wright & Solomon store, where the Farmers' Day opening had attracted a large company. It is the intention to give several demonstrations in Jacksonville tomorrow and probably one of these will be on the square near the corner of West State street.

THE A AND J. RAILROAD.

Before the state utilities board yesterday the Alton & Jacksonville railroad made application for permission to discontinue service and sell the property. An order was made requiring the company to restore portions of streets in the city of Alton where the company's tracks have been removed. An order was also made requiring the company to pay the city of Alton $238 due on a tax assessment. These things must be attended to before the petition for authority to discontinue service is allowed.

LOCAL BOARD NOTES.

Miss Genevieve Mount is busy in the office of the local board making the preparations for the shipment of records to Washington, the sale of fixtures and the closing of the office. Some time ago all the individual record cards were filed alphabetically in accordance with department instructions. More recently there were instructions to have the cards filed numerically so that the work of refiling is somewhat extensive. Altogether there are 6,000 record cards, with an equal number of duplicates. According to the plan the records from this board and others in county seats located along the Washash will constitute a card which will be forwarded direct to Washington for filing in government offices. Miss Barrette, city librarian, and Miss Bernice Wood are temporarily in the local board office, securing some facts for the historical soldiers' record of Morgan county while the files of the local board are available.

EXAMINATIONS FOR TEACHERS ARE HELD

Examinations of Teachers' Certificate Applicants in Progress in Office of County Supt. Vasconcellos.

Teachers' examinations are being held in the office of H. H. Vasconcellos, county superintendent of schools, in accordance with the requirements of the state department of education. The examinations began yesterday and will continue thru today. The questions are those sent to the county superintendent by the Illinois state examining board. The questions are on a variety of subjects, including physiology, geography, history, civics, pedagogy, English, algebra, physics, chemistry and some other subjects for teachers who are seeking elementary certificates. For those desiring high school certificates the subject includes some of those already mentioned, in addition to Latin, French, geometry, stenography, English and American literature.

CONFERRED DEGREE

At its regular meeting Thursday evening in Odd Fellows Hall, West State street, Carinus Lodge, No. 623 Rebekahs conferred the degree of the order on H. W. Simpson, Mrs. Hattie Simpson, of Prentice, and George Barnard of this city. Following the work a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served. Mrs. Taylor of Havana was a visitor.

The number of teachers taking the examination this year is much larger than usual. The names of the applicants for certificates are: Beatrice M. Anderson, Vera M. Ashbaugh, Mary J. Buchanan, Agnes B. Cosgriff, Mabel Cosgriff, Mary E. Cummings, Mary Elizabeth Darley, Russell T. Duncan, Antoinette S. Goveals, Eleanor M. Gowan, Hazel D. Gowan, Lee Edna Green, Margaret A. Graham, G. ### ERROR IN ALLEGED NEWS ITEM.

An item appeared in the Journal Thursday morning stating that Norbert Hagel and Harry Sandberg had given a dance Tuesday evening for a number of friends. The list of supposed guests was also printed. The young men stated yesterday that they neither gave a dance nor attended one on the evening mentioned. It seems that the whole item was erroneous and should not have been printed.

In several instances recently reports of social events have been furnished for publication by telephone or by written copy with all the appearance of authenticity, and later it has developed that the news was of a "fake" kind. Just what object anyone has in wanting untrue social news items published is uncertain. However it is just as well for some of these young people to find out that there is a law on the statute books which makes it a crime to intentionally furnish a newspaper a false report of the kind mentioned for publication. This matter is to be carefully watched in the future and "a word to the wise is sufficient."

K. OF P. SESSION.

An interesting session of Favorite Lodge K. of P. No. 376 was held last night. The work was conferred on a large class of candidates and the ceremonies were followed by a social hour with refreshments.

DOING HIS DUTY

The first dose of May's Wonderful Remedy made me feel 100 per cent better, and I am now feeling better than at any time in my life. I deem it my duty to advise other sufferers." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and always the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere. (Adv.)

LEMONS BRING OUT THE HIDDEN BEAUTY

Make this lotion for very little cost and just see for yourself.

As attractive skin wins admiration. In social life and in business the girl or woman whose face and hands show evidence of constant care enjoys a tremendous advantage over those who do not realize the value of a healthy skin and a spotless complexion. At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoother and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin.

Vigor

by vigorous men and women.

When good health is wanting, when physical power is at low ebb, it is impossible to accomplish one's work.
One of the causes of ill health and low vitality is the improper functioning of the kidneys.
Trouble results when they fail to eliminate waste and poisonous matter from the system, and rheumatic pains, backache, stiff joints, sore muscles, and other symptoms quickly follow.

Foley Kidney Pills
banish effects of kidney and bladder trouble by removing the cause. They are healing and curative. They tone up and strengthen the weakened or diseased organ.

H. D. Castleberry, Marine Engineer, Port
Vincent, La., writes: "I consider Foley Kidney Pills the greatest medicine for kidney and bladder trouble I ever used. I recommend them to all who suffer with kidney and bladder trouble."

YOU have spent your money for a car and the tires are its weakest part.
YOU well know with the use of air the tires are never worn out, and many of them go to the junk pile from a blowout or pinchout long before the tread is worn out. These two things alone cause you to lose 50 to 75 per cent of the actual mileage that you should get out of the tires.
SO DON'T lose any more time or money on the air system.
DON'T trust to luck when you can trust to NATIONAL RUB-

U. S. MARINE PRAISES WORK DONE BY Y. M. C. A. IN FRANCE

Fighter Declares He Doesn't Find Fault Because 'Y' Didn't Feed Him Chocolate Drops in Fox Hole—It Did Enough at Camp.

In a recent issue of the Stars and Stripes, the paper published by and for the American expeditionary forces, appears a strong commendation for the work done among the soldiers by the Y. M. C. A.

The letter is written by a marine in the characteristic lingo of the service men overseas and cites many commendable things that have been done by the Y. M. C. A.

The letter follows:

"I am not the guy who really won the war, nor did I see all the fronts, but there are a lot of other birds in this outfit, who didn't get as far toward Berlin as yours truly. Having introduced myself to my enthusiastic readers, stand back and allow me to begin."

On the Wrong Track.

My subject tonight will be a few words about the Y. M. C. A. Some of the lads don't seem to like it, and have started in to make the crowd back home think it's a false alarm. Now, Ed, you know that it's an easy thing to scatter the vitriol here and there, and there is a certain class of young volunteers who would rather do it than eat. I'm one of those people who like to grab a little myself; it's a habit I learned around the service but (ask the god what I mean), but the vitriol boys are on the wrong track this time. They are citing isolated cases that have happened during this year and a half making a mountain out of a molehill. This puts the entire Y. M. C. A. on the witness stand in self-defense, and that is a thing that should not be let's drop off a few points, jibe and look around. What do we see, mate?

We see hundreds of men who could have kept the home fires burning in the U. S. A. and earned a good wage along with the slackers and the genuine nondrafted men at any number of good-paying positions. What did they do? They came to France and kept on the job morning, noon and night every day of the week. They kidded the brawny fighters in the S. O. S. with movies, candies, cigarettes and decent words.

Constant Forward Movement

After you have done that about 6000 hours, more or less, you begin to get sick of it. Back in the S. O. S. the transportation was available and the supplies came into the canteens. But up at the front, when you were lucky to get clothes and chow, it was a pretty tough proposition, and whatever did come up to the Y. M. C. A. was nabbed by the guys on the special details and various trains back with division. Some of it did get up to the front, but not enough to create a panic. But that wasn't the fault of the Y. M. C. A.; it was the inevitable result of a constant forward movement in open warfare. I got hot chocolate dropped on advanced outposts of airplanes. It's too bad about those kids.

Since I've been up with machine guns I've never seen anything of this chocolate ration that the Q. M. corps serves out troops, and I don't feel any anguish because the Y. M. C. A. didn't feed me in a fox hole, especially when I know who had the monopoly on available transportation.

Hurrah for Wilbur.

There was a lad named Wilbur who was the secretary assigned to our battalion. He had been turned down for the army because he had one eye. So he sought the lucrative and luxurious life of the Y. M. C. A., thus hoping to be of some service to this country. When he found that it was impossible to drag chocolate bars and cigars over the top with machine guns, he gave first aid to the wounded under shell fire. He had the time of his young life, and no one had anything on Wilbur when it came to courage. The Roche winged him up at Blanc Mont in Champagne and he got a blighty.

There were lots of Wilburs in the Y. M. C. A., if you start investigating. I hate to see a lot of crabs ignoring them, too.

When we started on our march via France, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany we were lucky to have our emergency rations keep up with us. Then we settled in various castles on the Rhine, and the crabs began to scream for the Y. M. C. A. Where was it? Ask the army about that—ask why the trainloads of stores were side-tracked so that more important things could come up. But now our soldier boys are getting enough candy to make each and every one sick, and enough cigarettes to totally destroy the lungs.

I have purposely failed to touch upon the work of the women in the Y. M. C. A., because I couldn't adequately express the appreciation that we must all feel for their sacrifices and their infinite patience with us. They come from the best American womanhood, they are the finest type possible to obtain, and their refining influence among us has been evident in every camp that they have graced by their presence. They have been an inspiration to many of us, conscious or unconscious of that inspiration though we may be.

Just consider what they have given up at home to come over with us and to slave for us, yes, slave for us. Do you think it easy to put up with our general indifference and constant demands and continual kicks and to smile and be pleasant and truly sympathetic? Well, it isn't easy, and if we try for a moment to put ourselves in their place, and cater to the American expeditionary forces we shall get the point.

Where Were the Crusaders?

Ain't it awful, Mabel, did you hear that the army is going to try three secretaries who stole money? We don't call that "salvaging," do we? No, we don't. Three out of how many—I haven't the figures at present—but I'll bet my steel Stetson that the percentage is negligible. On the other hand, how many of our crusaders have gotten the yellow ticket for the same thing, commissioned and otherwise? Oh, but now you are attacking our set, and that isn't fair!

Well, here's one old-timer who got a square deal from the Y. M. C. A., and it's an Irish Catholic who says so. Take a straw vote and see what the conservatives think about it.

Silent Sufferer, U. S. M. C.

Mothers' Advice

The responsibility for a daughter's future largely rests with the mother. The right influence and the information which is of vital interest to the daughter imparted at the proper time has not only saved the life but insured the success of many a beautiful girl. When a girl's thoughts become shadowed with head aches, dizziness, and a disposition to keep, pains in back or lower limbs, and a desire for solitude, her mother should come to her aid and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, will at this time prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a year's life without pain or irregularities. Thousands of women residing in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtues of this medicine, and what it has done for their daughters.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For 3 months she was under the doctors' care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching as I did not know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. P. Paxon, 519 M. Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

ORGANIZING OF EMPLOYERS FAVORED
NEW YORK, March 19.—The American Federation of Labor favors just as much the organizing of employers as the organizing of laboring men, in order to bring democracy into the industrial life of this country, declared Matthew Woll, a representative of the federation in an address here today before the society of industrial engineers. Mr. Woll declared the federation was unalterably opposed to the doctrine of Socialism, Bolshevism, and I. W. W. and also to all unauthorized general strikes.

But, said Mr. Woll, the federation believes that all benefits should be enjoyed both by employer and employees, while laws within labor should be jointly determined upon.

According to Mr. Woll the federation also believes that the land should be divided among more people than that farming lands should be open to discharged soldiers, views "with some apprehension" the practical benefits of government ownership of railroads, favors government control of water power and advocates creation of a league of nations.

PROMISE TO AID THE GOVERNMENT
NEW YORK, March 19.—Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, chief of the army transportation service today appealed to Marine Workers at this port not to allow their strike to handicap the war department in handling troop ships.

Private boat owners and their striking employees apparently made no progress toward settlement.

VILLA'S MAIN COLUMN AT BUSTILLOS
Juarez, March 19.—Francisco Villa's main column was seen at Bustillos, Chihuahua, 60 miles southwest of Chihuahua City this week by Mexican refugees who reached here today. They reported Villa had about 500 men. It is reported Bishop J. C. Benley, head missionary James E. Whetten and Albert Tietjen of the Mexican Mormon colonies were prisoners of this command. The refugees reported 500 federalists at Casa Colorado west of Bustillos and a fight between Villa and federal commands was expected.

RECENT HAPPENINGS IN BLUFFS VICINITY

Funeral Services for Late Curtis Unger Held Sunday Afternoon—Dr. Rowe a Professional Visitor—Other News Notes.

Bluffs, March 18.—The body of Curtis Unger was brought from Jacksonville on No. 29 Sunday and taken direct to the M. P. church where the funeral sermon was read at 2 p. m. by the Rev. E. J. Rees. The theme was taken from the following: Psalm 89:49: "What man is he that liveth and shall not see death." Deceased was a man who kept his own counsel and little was known of his private life other than that he was a true friend, honest and fair in all his business dealings, a successful farmer and a good neighbor. He enlisted in the army from the state of Ohio in 1861 and served as a loyal soldier until the close of the war. It was his good fortune to march with Sherman in that famous march "from Atlanta to the sea." The music was in charge of Mesdames L. S. Black.
